Robert Thompson holds the rank of Eagle Scout following a Court of Honor held recently by Boy Scout Troop 19 at Northbrae Community Church. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Thompson, 1185 Santa Fe Avenue, Albany. The Eagle Award was presented by Roger Bales, Scout Executive, Mt. Diablo Council, Boy Scouts of America. The Court of Honor followed the thirty-ninth annual dinner of the troop which was attended by nearly 200 scouts, parents and friends. Charles M. Shaw, Chairman of the Troop Committee, presided over the banquet and Court of Honor ceremonies.

Four boys entered the troop as tenderfoot scouts. These new members are Andy Reeve, John Seebach, Bill Schaffer and Karl Sharni. Second class scout awards were made to Bob McKenna, Tim Patton, Bob Rodda, Keith Holmes, Rick Porterfield, Melvin Hendrickson, John Seidell, Steve Davis and Bill Potts. First class scout awards were received by Kenneth Bachman, Tom Lambert, Steve Reynolds, Chris Cheek, Glen Schaffer and Richard Thompson.

Robert Fyffe received his star scout rank and John Schweizer attained the rank of Life Scout. Merit badge award winners included Robert Fyffe, citizenship in the home; John Schweizer, home repairs; John Ford, fishing; Jack Holmes, forestry, public speaking and firearms; Robert Thompson, camping, life saving and public speaking.

Cub Pack Holds Inspection Feb. 19

The monthly inspection of Cub Pack No. 7, held on February 19 was a big success, with six Cubs, Richard Schagunn and Gerald Talley of Den 1, Don Beals and Carter Croley of Den 9, Larry Gaunt and Ronald Bryant of Den 11 receiving awards, and five Cubs, William McPoll, Larry Gaunt, Joey Vila, Mark Bachman and Lloyd Hawkins advancing to the rank of "Webelos".

The Pack welcomed one new member, Anthony Koosis who was initiated in the "Candle Light" ceremony and is now a member of Den 11. Anthony's mother, Mrs. Koosis, was also welcomed as the new Mother of Den 11.

Mrs. Adele Bachman, former Mother of Den 11, will be the new Webelos Mother.

Den 11 won the inspection and is in first place for the quarterly award, to be given in March, with a total of 177 points but with three other dens running real close; Den 3, 170 points; Den 1, 168 points, and Den 9, with 165 points, any one of which could win the award.

present Senior Patrol Leader, spoke on present events, and Dan Smith presented future plans for the troop.

A special service award in the form of a trophy was presented to John D. Ainsworth, Scoutmaster, for long and outstanding service to Troop 19. The troop charter was presented by Paul Avery, Neighborhood Commissioner, to Clarence Mengscho, Institutional Representative for Northbrae Community Church which sponsors the troop.

The dinner was prepared by the troop mothers under the direction of Mrs. Charles M. Shaw.

Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Janke of Albany Honored On Silver Anniversary

A surprise Vesper service and reception were given Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Janke of Albany recently in honor of their Silver Wedding Anniversary February 24. Approximately 250 members and friends of the congregation of Grace Lutheran Church, El Cerrito, of which Rev. Janke is pastor, gathered at the church to greet the honored couple as they arrived.

The church was decorated for a wedding, with white flowers and candelabra. Mrs. Janke received an orchid corsage as she arrived, after which she and Rev. Janke were escorted down the center aisle by two guest pastors and the ushers.

Rev. Norman C. Ellerman of Centerville was guest speaker, and Rev. Fred Henning acted as liturgist. The sermon topic was "God's Continued Presence in the Christian Home."

Mrs. Stephen Lehmer directed the choir in a special hymn, "Jesus, Lead Thou On" — which had been sung at the wedding ceremony of the Jankes 25 years before. Mr. George Chelemos acted as guest organist.

Following the special service a reception was held in the church parish house, beautifully decorated in silver and white.

Pastor and Mrs. Janke were married at Zion Lutheran Church in San Francisco, with Mrs. Janke's father, Rev. H. M. Liebe, now retired, officiating. Although the parents of the couple were unable to attend the celebration, telegrams of congratulations from them were read during the reception, as well as other messages from out-of-town friends.

Special guests at the reception were friends who had attended the wedding of the Jankes 25 years ago, and included Rev. and Mrs. Fred Henning; Rev. and Mrs. N. C. Ellerman; Rev. and Mrs. Otto Rohrer of Trinity Lutheran Church, Richmond; Dr. Ernest Scaer, now Educator of Concordia Lutheran College in East Oakland; Mrs. Scaer; and Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Koehler. Dr. Schaefer and Mrs. Koehler were the Jankes' attendants at their wedding.

Among the guests also was Miss Marga Janke, daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. Janke. Paul Janke and his wife, Arleen, their son and daughter-in-law, now of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, were unable to attend the celebration, but their telegraphed congratulations were also read at the reception.

Pastor Janke is now in the 26th year of service to the parish which honored him and Mrs. Janke on this special occasion.

Mrs. H. Quayle Petersmeyer, President of the Berkeley-Albany Motion Picture and T.V. Council has announced that Mrs. Ruth V. F. Jameson, Chief Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent of the Berkeley Schools will be the guest speaker at the March 21 meeting.

Mrs. Jameson will speak on the subject of the relationship between the student and his adjustment and audio-visual recreation.

The meeting will be held at 10 a.m., in the auditorium of the School Administration Building, Walnut at Rose Streets in Berkeley, and all are invited to attend.

Elm Branch of Children's Hospital Holds Dinner Dance

The Cerrito Club in El Cerrito was the scene of a lively St. Patrick's dinner dance given by Elm Branch of Albany, of the Children's Hospital group on Saturday, March 12.

Little Jack Horner's orchestra provided the music, and a "wonderful time was had by all." Among those in attendance were Dr. and Mrs. Robert T. McMahon, Bill and Dorothy Simmons, Stan and Eleanor Sanich, Jerry and Muriel Blank, and Martin and Julie Griffen.

Next year's annual dance date has been set for May 6, 1961, at the same place.

Annual Book Fair Set For April 1-3

Books and people who write them will be headlined at the third annual Richmond Book Fair in the Richmond Memorial Auditorium April 1, 2 and 3, it was announced today.

Exhibits of new adult and children's books in all subject fields will be on display, a series of book-centered programs is scheduled for the three-day event, and authors will be present to speak and autograph books. The Book Fair, a National Library Week event, is being co-sponsored by the Richmond Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Richmond Public Library.

In addition to the new books exhibited by publishers and book-sellers, there will be special displays of rare books, fine printings, and Californiana materials.

From the confidential files of big league clubs themselves, representing a consensus of thousands of reports from the keenest talent appraisers in the game, Baseball Digest has secured for its current March issue official scouting reports on the more than 200 rookies who'll be battling for big league berths this spring.

And here's what Baseball Digest found the scouts thought about Albany's own Ronald Hansen, who's getting a trial with the Baltimore Orioles:

HANSEN, RONALD (R)
B: R, Th: R, 5-4-38, 6:03, 190. Brilliant shortstopping continued as he led 3A PCL with 96 DP's, 321 PO's, 496 assists. Hit improved .256 with 61 RBIs, 18 HR's in 147 games for Vancouver. Fourth camp trial. Danish-German. Single. B: Oxford, Neb. R: Albany, Calif.

Scouting Report: "Put him down as a major leaguer. An outstanding fielder. Average hitter but has good power possibilities."

State Farm Mutual
Shows Big Gains
In Annual Report

State Farm Mutual ended 1959 with an 11.9 per cent share of the nation's private passenger car insurance market and with earned premiums for the year in excess of $400 million, the first time a single casualty insurance company has passed that dollar level, according to Chris Roden, CLU, local district manager.

Local agents for State Farm in Albany are Ed Apelt, F. F. Foster, Ed Herrstein and V. V. "Frank" Perala.

Of the company's $432,061,041 of earned premiums, auto business accounted for $419,740,013. Other year-end figures announced today by Adlai H. Rust, chairman of the boards of the three State Farm companies, show assets of $567,899,140, a 17 per cent gain for the period. Policyholders' surplus increased 17.8 per cent to $156,119,621.

Claim costs mounted to a new high for the tenth straight year, Rust reported. Claims incurred totaled $257,084,976, a 15.1 per cent increase, and claims and underwriting expenses incurred climbed 7.9 per cent to $159,059,724. The company settled 2,118,360 claims during the year.

Albany High School P.T.A. Discusses

Adoption of Pupil 'Codes of Conduct'

Albany High School P.T.A. secured when new officers take over.

Thursday, March 10, elected an incomplete slate of officers for the 1960-61 term. To date, the organization has no president.

Mrs. Frederic Brown, current president, declined the nomination for a second term. Mrs. Ted McCain, first vice president, will not have a student in high school next year. Mrs. William Koser, who was elected first vice president, will become president pro tem if a president has not been

Other officers for the new term are Mrs. W. O. Foott, second vice president; Mrs. Peter Nigro, recording secretary; Mrs. Lee Keck, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. W. Angell, financial secretary; Mrs. William Roberts, treasurer; Mrs. Olga Cogziola, auditor; and Mrs. D. W. Moody, historian. They will be installed April 21.

The March program topic was "The Need for a Code of Behavior." Mrs. Ted McCain, program chairman, introduced Daniel Stone, official of the Palo Alto school system, where Codes of Conduct have been used with success for 10 years. Mr. Stone read the code for ninth graders, explaining that while the school does not actively participate in setting up the codes, it serves as the place where students and parents meet to formulate the rules. He said the annual meetings of teenagers and their parents for this purpose are widely popular and well attended.

Two Palo Alto students, Nancy Marshall, chairman of the privilege card committee, and Malcolm Hoff, editor of the school paper, attended the Albany meeting to answer questions from the student standpoint. They said codes were almost unnecessary for senior high school students if they have been used in junior high school.

Mr. Stone said it is important to adapt the codes to individual communities and their sets of problems. Among Palo Alto problems the codes have helped solve were: party crashing, whether corsages should be given, "going steady," and "half-mast" trousers. Some girls cannot afford nylon hose, so nobody wears them.

"We have parents meetings once a year," he said. "Times change, so we never take it for granted that the old rules are good enough."

Palo Alto codes cover such categories as what times activities should end and how soon students should be home; transportation to parties (car pools with parent drivers have been found most satisfactory); dating; acceptable dress for school and various types of parties; behavior in school, and, to some extent, community behavior.

Many questions were asked following Mr. Stone's presentation. Most parents seemed to agree that Albany should have Codes of Conduct.

Refreshments were served by ninth grade representatives, headed by Mrs. G. C. McHone and Mrs. Charles Cummings.

Albany Y.M.C.A. Gets Youngsters Ready for Summer

"Y's Up" is the slogan of the Albany YMCA and get youngsters ready for the summer fun.

The "Y" learn-to-swim program is held every Saturday morning at the Albany Pool, Portland and Pomona Avenues.

Swimming is one of the oldest, most useful and beneficial of sports. Nearly everyone, young, old, even the handicapped, can enjoy it. Five to seven thousand drown each year because of simple carelessness and thoughtlessness of the basic safety rules.

It's Up and learn to swim or to swim better to enjoy the summer fun.

Rodney Kipp, Ken Collicott and Elmer F. Coble, executive secretary of the Albany "Y", along with a group of trained volunteers do the instructing.

Tumbling Class Starts Saturday At Albany YMCA

Another ten weeks of tumbling instruction will start Saturday, March 26, according to Elmer F. Coble, executive secretary of the Albany YMCA.

Bouncing aerial tumbling is an exciting way to build strong coordinated muscles.

Two class periods starting at 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. for one hour are designed for youngsters 8 through 12 years of age. A 12 to 1 instruction period is designed for teenagers. Enroll now at the Albany YMCA, 921 Kains Avenue.

The schedule is: 8:40 - 9:20 a.m. — Advance and High Intermediate.

Senior Citizen Activities, 850 Masonic

On Tuesday evening, March 29, the annual anniversary party of the Senior Citizens will be held. This affair was postponed from last month due to the rummage sale which was held at about that time. The Soroptimist Club has promised to provide a cake for this affair.

At the meeting Tuesday evening, March 8, Harry and Maude Reynolds donated five dollars toward the Memorial Fund in memory of Andrew Crist, a former president of the club, who passed away last week.

The Seniors were made very happy by the news that the Optimist Club had donated hundred dollars to the Senior Citizen Foundation.

The St. Patrick's luncheon on by the Senior Citizens of Albany at 12:30 on Tuesday, March 15, was a great success and attended by a large group of Seniors.

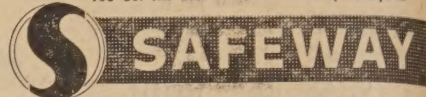

After the luncheon a number of Irish songs were sung by Mrs. L. Riley at the piano after that cards were played. For any information concerning further activities of this call President William McCoy at LA 5-6535.
